

You're invited to a PIC Institute Community Workshop

These workshops are designed to inform service providers of wonderful community resources.

January 13, 2010

Time: 1 - 3:30 p.m.

Location: United Way of the Midlands
1800 Main St.
Columbia, SC 29201

January 20, 2010

Time: 9 a.m. - Noon

Location: Bill Rogers Community Connections Center
4900 Broad River Road
Columbia, SC 29210

The following providers will present:

Call 2-1-1 Child Care
Resource and Referral

We are here to help! Child Care Resource & Referral works with child care professionals to help them offer the best care and early learning they can. United Way of the Midlands provides Child Care Resource and Referral services to 8 counties: Chester, Fairfield, Kershaw, Lancaster, Newberry, Richland, Union, and York.

THE BENEFIT BANK[®]
of South Carolina
A Program of the SC Office of Rural Health

Millions of dollars in benefits go unclaimed in SC every year. The Benefit Bank is a Web-based service that helps low- and moderate-income Americans overcome barriers to claiming work supports. The program offers bundled access to tax credits, public benefits, and other assistance at one-stop sites sponsored by faith-based, community, private-sector, and governmental organizations.

Lt. Governor's Office on Aging

The Lieutenant Governor's Office on Aging works with a network of regional and local organizations to develop and manage programs and services to improve the quality of life of South Carolina's older citizens, and to help them remain independent in their homes and communities.

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA)

Free tax preparation in the Midlands for households earning below $48,000 in 2009. Trained volunteers help folks ensure they receive the tax credits such as the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) to which they are entitled at no cost. More than 15% of these credits go unclaimed each year.

If you would like to attend an orientation session, email Andrea Scott at ascott@uway.org or call 803-748-7286. Please include name, organization, session date and location, and contact number.