

Chief Financial Officer - A cover letter and resume are required for consideration.

The Chief Financial Officer (CFO) provides both operational and programmatic support to the organization. The CFO will work with the chief executive officer (CEO) on all strategic and tactical matters as they relate to budget management, cost benefit analysis, forecasting needs and new funding acquisition. The CFO will be responsible for all financial and business aspects of the organization. including but not limited to, information technology system and the employee benefits program.

The CFO must be a skilled, financial leader who is passionate about the prevention of child abuse and neglect.

Qualifications

Be a certified public accountant (CPA) Preference will be given to those with a master's degree in accounting, finance, business, or relevant field.

Have five to seven years of financial experience and management experience with the day-to-day financial operations of an organization with greater than ten people. Advanced knowledge of business and management principles involved in strategic planning, resource allocation, leadership techniques, and coordination of people and resources.

Benefits

Children's Trust provides a competitive benefits package including medical, dental, life, short-term and long-term disability, matching voluntary deferred compensation, employee assistance program and paid time off and holidays.

Hiring Range

Min: $119,829 Max: $123,829

You can find out more about our mission at www.scchildren.org. A more complete description of this position can be found at www.scchildren.org/employment.

Email cover letter and resume by November 4 to aneely@scchildren.org subject line CFO or mail to P.O. Box 11644, Columbia, SC 29211. A cover letter and resume are required for consideration.